

There are quite a few ways to tour Scotland either by train, coach or self drive. All of them have their pros and cons it really comes down to budget, time and preference. The seasons in Scotland also play their part with the fabulous colours of Autumn and the lush colours of Spring.